

coal

geo thermal

oil

energy

renewable energy

water power

A person who uses or supports strong actions (such as public protests) to help make changes in politics or society

A type of rock that takes millions of years to form and creates energy when burned

To use carefully to prevent loss or waste

Without Waste

The ability to do work

How much energy you use and how efficiently (without waste) you use it.

Heat from the center of the earth is turned into energy

Energy from a natural source that can't be replaced

A liquid created from fossils over thousands of years and creates energy when burned

Able to make new again; can create it again and again

Energy from a source that doesn't run out, for example, from the sun or wind

Solar panels turn the sun into energy

Energy is created by flowing water (dams)

Wind turns the blades of a windmill and turbine to create energy

A structure that converts wind power into energy by blades

wind energy

activist

conserve

efficiently

renewable

nonrenewable energy

solar energy

energy footprint

windmills